

MICHL Advisory Council

The initiative was created with the help of over 20 CEOs, executive directors, and directors from community based organizations, community health centers, state and city government, and advocacy groups. The individuals and their affiliated organizations (at the time of MICHL's inception) who assisted the BCBSMA Foundation in developing the content and priorities for the Leadership Institute are:

- Valerie Bassett, Boston Public Health Commission
- Lisette Blondet, Cape Cod Healthcare
- Michael DeChiara, Community Partners, Inc.
- Debbie Flynn-Gonzalez, Mass. Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children
- Ediss Gandelman, Community Care Alliance
- Susan Gardner, R.N. Little Home for the Wanderers, Inc.
- Dorcas Grigg-Saito, Paulette Renault-Caragianes, Lowell Community Health Center
- John Hess, Great Brook Valley Health Center, Inc.
- Chip Joffe-Halpern, Ecu-Health Care, Inc.
- Lyn Levy, SPAN
- Toni McGuire, Manet Community Health Center, Inc.
- Cynthia Mitchell, Sarah Kuh, Island Health, Inc.
- Laura Medrano, Metro West Latin American Center
- Ana Ortiz, Martha Eliot Health Center
- Celeste Reid Lee BCBSMA Foundation
- Donna Rivera, Greater Lawrence Family Health Center
- Randal Rucker, Family Service of Greater Boston
- Cathy Savoy, North Quabbin Community Coalition
- Margaret Soussloff, Franklin Community Action Corp.
- Duy Van Pham, Vietnamese-American Civic Center
- Ed Wang, Mass. Dept. of Mental Health