

The Economic Impact of MassHealth

Massachusetts prides itself on its strong and dynamic economy. MassHealth contributes significantly to the state's economic strength. In a recession, while much of the rest of the economy contracts, MassHealth enrollment and spending grows, acting as a stabilizer for the economy.

MASSHEALTH BRINGS BILLIONS IN FEDERAL FUNDS TO THE STATE

- MassHealth is the largest source of federal funding to the state.
- In state fiscal year 2018, Massachusetts received $8.05 billion in federal funding for MassHealth.
- The amount of federal funding for MassHealth is sevenfold larger than the next biggest source of federal funds to the state.
- For every dollar in MassHealth spending, the federal government covers at least half.

MassHealth generates 56% of all federal funds provided to the state.

MASSHEALTH IS A CRITICAL SOURCE OF REVENUE FOR HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS

- MassHealth is responsible for more than half (53%) of all revenue for nursing homes and 43% of long-term services and supports spending.
- Providers delivering prenatal care critical to the long-term well-being of Massachusetts families count on MassHealth for one-third of their revenue.
- MassHealth makes up about one-fifth of hospital revenue, and in 2014 the payments it provides for uncompensated care covered 40% of hospital uncompensated care costs.

MASSHEALTH CREATES JOBS AND SUPPORTS THE WORKFORCE OF TODAY AND TOMORROW

- Employment in Massachusetts' health care sector accounts for 14% of all jobs in the state (employing half a million people), and roughly 125,000 of these jobs can be attributed to MassHealth.
- MassHealth provides coverage to people in the low-income workforce across many industries, keeping employees healthy through preventive care and treatment for chronic conditions.
- MassHealth helps individuals with disabilities to be active members of the workforce by allowing them to work without fear of losing their health care coverage.
- MassHealth covers 700,000 children, setting up the Commonwealth's children for long-term health and educational success. Medicaid coverage in early childhood leads to higher academic test scores and improved health in adulthood.
